

375-3-1-.12 Re-Examination Upon Failure

(1) Any applicant for a driver's license of any class, with the exception of CDL, who fails any part of the driving examination may re-attempt the examination according to the following schedule:

- (a) First Failure--after the first failure the applicant must wait until the next day before retaking those parts of the driving examination that were failed earlier
- (b) Second or Subsequent Failure--after the second failure the applicant must wait seven (7) calendar days before retaking those parts of the driving examination that were failed earlier.
- (c) Reserved.

(2) Any failure of any part of the examination may equal failure of the complete examination for that testing day.

Authority: O.C.G.A. §40-5-4

Synopsis

Statement of Purpose and Main Features of the Proposed Rule

The purpose of this proposed amendment is to clarify that the CDL retest period is different from the non-commercial retest period.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN EXISTING AND PROPOSED RULE

The current rule provides that any applicant for a driver's license of any class who fails any party of the exam may re-attempt the examination one (1) day after the first failure and seven (7) days after the second or subsequent failures. This amendment will exclude the CDL exams from the non-commercial re-testing schedule.
